Sponsorship Packet 2018

Our Company

Brave Umbrella Productions is a theatre production company established in 2016.

As a company, Brave Umbrella creates unique work by utilizing emerging and local artists in every production—whether that is the playwrights, musicians, group of actors or other artists. This allows a new set of voices to showcase their talent and vision while opening the theatre experience to artists and audience members who don't normally collaborate with or attend theatre productions.

We will perform at Oregon Contemporary Theatre. After the run of the show we will have video recordings of our productions posted on social media and our website—allowing us to share our work beyond the immediate area.

Brave Umbrella Company Goals

- To create and showcase new and original works
- To make unique productions
- To interest new and younger audiences in theatre
  - To push boundaries
- To allow for improvisation
- To normalize the weird

Current Project

We will be producing an original show written by Grant Thackray. Fennel works at (TRU)LUV-KISS, a phone hotline in the land of fairy tales. She spends her days taking calls from characters who need help. However, working this job isn't her fairy tale wish. But wishing for change doesn't actually make it happen. Also, who is Jack, and why does he keep calling the hotline to curse himself? Fennel must make her own dreams come true, while keeping this stranger alive.

All Performances will be at Oregon
Contemporary Theatre
